Kellie Callahan practices in all aspects of Community Association Law and is licensed in both Arizona and New Mexico. Kellie oversees the Firm's Enforcement practice group and, in addition to covenant enforcement also focuses her practice on general counsel representation, development issues, planned community and condominium formation, governing document interpretation and amendment, and civil litigation. Kellie represents small businesses, nonprofit corporations, planned communities and condominiums. She also has significant experience in collections litigation and business and employment law issues.

Kellie has served as a member of the Central Arizona Chapter of the Community Associations Institute's Public Relations Committee and as a liaison to the Education Committee. She has also taught numerous community association related courses through Arizona Association of Community Managers and the Leadership Centre. Kellie is a mentor with the State Bar of New Mexico's Bridge the Gap Mentorship Program. Kellie is originally from Boston and is an avid Boston sports fan.
