Paige A. Martin has 30 years' experience in litigation in state and federal courts and administrative tribunals. She has defended clients in large class actions involving millions of dollars. Paige also has substantial experience defending employment cases of all types for public and private employers, including gender, age and national origin discrimination, wrongful termination, sexual harassment claims, and wage and hour claims. Her experience crosses all areas of business law, from litigating contract cases to shareholder disputes. She has represented Arizona governments at the state, county and local levels. Paige's appellate experience includes writing briefs filed in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, Arizona Court of Appeal, and Arizona Supreme Court. The Arizona appellate courts have published the opinions of several cases for which Paige wrote the briefs.

Paige has spoken to many clients and groups on a variety of topics, ranging from email etiquette to performance evaluations to hiring and firing to diversity, discrimination, and harassment training. She has also taught the State Bar of Arizona's Course on Professionalism. She is active in the Arizona Women Lawyers Association and Scottsdale Bar Association, and served as President of both associations. She has sat on committees for the Maricopa County Superior Court and the Arizona Supreme Court. She served as President and Secretary of her homeowners association. She is currently Vice President and Secretary of the University Club of Phoenix.

Paige is an AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell. (See www.martindale.com/ratings.) She has been named one of Arizona's Top Rated Lawyers by Legal Leaders for several years.

In her spare time, Paige loves reading mystery and detective novels and playing with her two cats.
